

Global Competencies

Make healthy decisions

#11--Capability to make healthy decisions that enhance physical, mental and emotional well-being to thrive within a global environment

Achieve Expertise

#10--Achieve expertise by searching, understanding and developing new knowledge about a world culture or internationally relevant issue

Communicate Effectively

#9--The use of digital media and technology to access relevant and credible information from around the world and to effectively communicate, synthesize and create new knowledge

Manage Learning

#8--Ability to identify, evaluate and organize ongoing learning opportunities to live and work in a successful global society

Collaborate Effectively

#1--Ability to collaborate effectively in diverse situations.

Develop Multiple Perspectives

#2--Capacity to analyze and evaluate global issues from multiple perspectives

Interdependence of Systems

#3--Understanding of how international systems are interconnected and interdependent

Ethical Decisions

#4--Capability to make ethical decisions and responsible choices that contribute to the development of a more just, peaceful and sustainable world

Critical and Creative Thinking

#5--Ability to identify, define, and solve problems using critical and creative thinking strategies

Literacy for the 21st Century

#6--Proficient in reading, writing, viewing, listening and speaking in English and in one or more other world language

Understanding Complexity

#7--Understanding the complexity of global issues

